A Novel on Human Trafficking in America No one was looking for them. They were invisible. When local reporter, Kayla Barrington, crossed paths with an orphan boy on the streets of Denver, Colorado, she didn't know the world of human trafficking hid in her city. Under the facade, a highly networked trafficking ring was thriving at the exploitation of children all over Denver. Darkness couldn't stay quiet forever, and when Kayla was tipped off, a desperate search began. What started with one boy, led to a destiny of rescue and redemption. No one else knew these children were there. And she couldn't walk away.
