Striking, raven-haired Cecile produces the finest lemons on the Riviera. Her ice creams, pies, lemonades, sold on her stall at the internationally famous Cannes market, are as renowned as the Mediterranean city itself. Tourists travel from everywhere to meet her.

But Cecile is a woman who no one draws close to, a woman with a secret.

Cecile, when she was nineteen and a shy student, travelled south to a lemon festival on the borders of Italy and France. She was intending to let her hair down, to enjoy two crazy weeks of fun. She was not anticipating the enigmatic Italian who offered her a future beyond her wildest dreams. But at what cost?

The Girl in Room Fourteen is a heartrending love story set on the warm shores of the Mediterranean.

Carol Drinkwater is a multi-award winning actress who is best known for her portrayal of Helen Herriot in the BBC television series, All Creatures Great and Small.

Carol is the author of twenty books, both fiction and non-fiction, and has achieved bestselling status, over a million copies sold worldwide, with her series of memoirs set on an Olive Farm in the south of France.

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Girl in Room Fourteen (Kindle Single) can make you feel more interested to read.
