Curiouser (Girls of Wonder Lane Book 3) Christina Coryell
Alexis Jennings spent her entire life trying to do the right thing, until a chance meeting with Jake McAuliffe altered the course of her future. She's been living on autopilot for the last three years, but she's finally ready to move on. With her daughter Bailey by her side, she plans a move to a new state and a new beginning.

Jake McAuliffe had always been the life of the party, before he burned all the bridges that held his life together. When he destroys his closest friendship and his job with one solitary act, he knows he has no choice but to start over. The problem is, there's only one relationship in his life worth trying to save...his relationship with his daughter.

Alexis and Jake have to learn to put aside their differences for the sake of their daughter, but can hope for a new future truly survive when the past follows Alexis out of town?
