“Dr. Michael Day humorously entices readers with memories of his decades as a family physician. This book reveals how even doctors can learn from their patients.” — Cheryl Fiscus Jenkins, author of “MOVE: Get Inspired for your Health” and newspaper journalist.

ABOUT THE BOOK:

This book is a collection of stories and observations gleaned from the author’s many years of experience as a family physician. Almost every chapter features at least one patient experience or example. Some of the stories are more humorous, some more inspirational, and some more an expression of opinion. All the stories are true, within the limitations of patient confidentiality… and author memory loss. Learn more at:
