Twisted Dani Matthews
I can't outrun my past...

Moving in with my brother was supposed to change my life and bring a little light to my darkness. But I soon learn I can't ignore the very thing that haunts my nightmares. I still take a blade to my skin as often as I did before, punishing myself in ways that no one will ever understand. I am desperate to keep my secrets.

I meet Cole, and he's the perfect distraction. He's wild and reckless. He's fun to be around and doesn't ask questions about my past. He accepts me as I am, scarred and twisted. But Cole is possessive and controlling. There's something not right with him, but I can't walk away.

Then there is Noah, my brother's housemate. He's deaf, but he doesn't let it control or defeat him. He's strong and resilient. Everything I'm not. How do I lie to someone who can't hear my voice but can read everything in between? When he looks at me, I feel like he sees me like no one else has. His eyes ask questions that no one else has bothered to ask. My gut tells me to trust him with my secrets, but when Cole drags me into a deadly situation, it's just one more secret to hold on to. If anyone finds out...

How can I find redemption when I'm well past the point of forgiveness?
