Viking's Woman: Historical BBW Warrior Romance Chera Zade, Circe Ridley
Thorbjorn is a man on a mission. He will return home from his raid with a woman of worth to stand by his side, or he will not stop until he finds her. As luck may have it, just the right kind of woman is waiting for him in the odd lands of the Anglo-Saxons. Now, all that is left is to convince this goddess-like woman to behave and do as she's told. But seems that the gods have seen fit to give this one a temper! Perhaps Thorbjorn, the leader of Vikings, has bit off more than he can possibly chew?

Gwendolyn is devoted to a life of worship, whether she likes it or not. When a Viking raid comes to hassle her convent, she steps out against injustice, and swiftly finds herself on the back of a horse, being carted off by some over-confident brute of a warrior. She won't go without a fight! But fighting gets harder and harder when that beast turns out to be a powerful, intelligent, and not to mention infuriatingly sexy Viking warlord.

So what's a woman to do? Battle her desires and deny the determined Viking his bride, or give in?

This is a standalone novella with a happy ever after ending, no cliffhanger! Be prepared for plenty of steam!
