The Perfect Resignation Letter: I Fired My Boss Fancy Frenchwood
Are you unhappy in your current employment situation? Do you work for a company or boss that causes you to constantly question your career choices? Are you contemplating a job or career change? This book covers Frenchwood's journey to knowing her worth in the workplace. She recently resigned from her position and Cheryl Snapp Conner published Frenchwood's resignation letter on Forbes.com. This story helps readers discover their inner voice and the confidence to listen to it. If you are willing to participate in some serious self-evaluation resulting in knowledge of self and self-worth, the reward is a stronger sense of personal empowerment. One who feels empowered will most likely make positive choices to achieve goals and is less likely to remain complicit in maltreatment imposed by others, including an ineffective, incompetent boss.
