This book gives compelling reasons and stories on why a beautiful smile can change a person's life. It is also contains ADVICE to help anyone who goes to the dentist become more knowledgeable, confident and comfortable in their dental experiences and in their other health choices. In addition, it is a very helpful book for patients in search of a new dentist and provides a model and ideas for dentists who would like to give their patients a superior dental office experience. Read about inspirational stories and adventures which have led him to experience a different existence as a dentist. You will read stories from the humanitarian projects he has been a part of for over 40 years. Dr. Fenderson is the recipient of the San Francisco Bay area Jefferson Award and Crown Council's Humanitarian of the Year. Read this book before you go to your dentist again. Former long time Napa mayor, Ed Henderson, best summed up the book by saying, "This is a well written big little book. In fact, it's actually two books in one. The first book describes a warm, kind family dentist who is dedicated to his patient's wellbeing. The second one tells the story of a man committed to his family and to his fellow man. Thank you, Adrian, for sharing your views. I'm so glad you're in this world." This is the worlds most definitive book on understanding your dental health. Dr. Fenderson was featured on CBS Television's Good Day Sacramento 26 August 2013.
