Whispering Pines Novel 3

MAGGIE BECOMES AN INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER — AND LANDS IN HOT WATER

If only it would snow! The ski slopes around Pine Mountain remain bare as winter approaches and activity in the little community slows to a crawl. With businesses on the verge of failure, rumors of a new land development begin to surface, giving residents reason to hope.

Then Maggie Carpenter writes a revealing article about the problems in the plans for the condominium community, and trouble starts to brew…

When Jed Whitewater misunderstands Maggie's business involvement with a very attractive man, Maggie's personal life is thrown into turmoil. The timing is terrible, because if she ever needed Jed, it is now.

What must she do to help her community find peace? And, in the end, will her new romance with Jed flower into love or fade into friendship?
