Integrity: Character of the Kingdom Sean Feucht
In a generation of selfies, slander, and little white lies, what does a life of integrity look like?

Sean Feucht can see a problem: our generation has lost its integrity. We are not true to our countries, our families, our friends, or even ourselves. Integrity is left in the dust as we chase what the world wants: the perfect body, the biggest bank account, and the most power. Many in the church have abandoned integrity and been swept downward into a spiral of hypocrisy and finger-pointing. The need for radical Christian integrity to spread throughout the world has never been greater. But what would that look like?

For the answer, internationally-known worship leader Sean Feucht asked his "mothers and fathers in the faith" to explain what integrity means in their lives. With chapters from James Goll, Darlene Cunningham, Heidi Baker, Dick Mills, Charlie Stock, Stacey Campbell, Allen Hood, Ché Ahn, and Cindy Jacobs, the result is a book full of insight and vulnerability from these leaders on how to walk with integrity through your communication, your ministry, your marriage, your family relationships, your leadership, your personal finances, and your times of trial.
