Masters of Illusion: The Game Jeff Ferraro
What do you do after discovering that your life is no longer your own? Do you strike back against those who are mocking your very existence, or is it best to simply play along with whatever sinister plans your captors have set before you?

Max Alwell has found himself in exactly that type of situation and is finding it increasingly difficult to differentiate between nightmare and reality. Truth and lies are constantly being fed to him in a vile mixture, which only adds to the deception.

Is he a guinea pig being tested for some purpose beyond his comprehension? Is he a victim who has been inserted into some nefarious game of which he has no knowledge? Or, has he reached the afterlife, where it merely slipped someone's mind to tell him that he was dead? Read more to discover the truth...
