TOGETHER We Will Save Our U. S. of A. Carol C. Torkko
The economic future of our country is heading for a perfect storm in fifteen years or less. This is due to our deficit increasing by over $20,000 per second and the exhaustion of the Social Security Trust Fund by the year of 2029 or sooner. At that time we will no longer be able to increase our debt as there will be no significant market for selling our U.S. Treasury securities, and our seniors will receive substantially reduced monthly benefits. This will lead us into a severe economic recession as we will have to suddenly live within our means. Our ability to defend ourselves will be limited, which leads to an uncertain future for our country. This book includes a mission statement and the BEEHIVES Plan©, that outlines the proposed actions for avoiding the perfect storm and strengthening our country for the future. Also included is a recommended list of qualifications you should consider when choosing your next U.S. President, the author's qualifications for U.S. President, and how you can make a difference in keeping our country safe and healthy over the long term. The sooner we begin the process of balancing the budget and ensuring the longevity of the Social Security Trust Fund, the less negative impact there will be on our current economy as we will be able to apply the changes needed more gradually.
