Voices on the Wind Michael C. Anders
Voices on the Wind is the story of a young colt and his journeys across space and time; visiting strange lands, clashing on dangerous battle fields, and entertaining at the courts of kings. A foal is born to Wind Dancer, the favorite mare of a small western farming family. Thirteen year old Megan raises the colt, her first horse, and with him grows in wisdom and maturity. The colt, Wind Racer, encouraged by his mother, listens to the voices on the wind, the spirited whinnies of ancient horses, which teach every equine the character essential for herdfriendship. But learning is so much more than listening, and the colt soon discovers that he is actually experiencing the lives of these Equines of renown: the elegant Arabian, the versatile American Quarter Horse, the fearless Andalusian, the mysterious Akhel-Teke'je, and many more. Learn as Racer does, that every horse has value, and to find and experiences that value, one must look beyond hoof, and withers, and mane. Voices on the Wind is the tale of one horse, yet it is the tale of all horses. It is a sage of experiencing, of learning and, in the end of living and loving.
