EMBER - Part Three (The EMBER Series Book 3) Deborah Bladon
The final part of EMBER, a three-part series from New York Times and USA Today bestselling author, Deborah Bladon.

Bridget Grant and Dane Beckett found something in one another. Neither was looking for love when they crossed paths in a crowded restaurant, yet they can't deny that the instant attraction they feel for one another is shifting into something more.

Bridget's perception of the man she's falling in love with changes in an instant when she realizes that he may not be the kind, giving and honest person she thought he was. When she's faced with undeniable proof of who he really is, she's forced to confront him in a way she never imagined she'd have to.

They have hurdles they have to overcome together but will the past be too much for either of them to bear? As Bridget faces a decision to pursue her life's dream, Dane has to confront the woman who he once loved. Bridget wants the truth, Dane wants her and when life offers Bridget a chance she can't pass up, will it mean the end of their love?
