University of the World: A Case for a World University System Dieter Lenzen

In this book, Dieter Lenzen analyzes the world's three major educational systems: the Continental-European, the Atlantic (Anglo-American) and the East Asian. Distancing himself from the current trend towards the economically driven Anglo-American system of education, the author proposes an alternative model, "a university of the world".

Contents:

· Three concepts of the university in the globalization process

· The dynamics of global social systems

· Global challenges in the post-secondary educational sector as springboard for comparing systems

· Convergence and divergence: current system dynamics in the post-secondary sector

· Can there be fair chances in a world university system?

· Conclusion

Target readers:

· Theorists of higher education

· Policy makers of higher education

· Administrators of higher education

· Social scientists

The author:

Professor Dr. Dieter Lenzen is the president of Universität Hamburg, vice president of the German Rectors' Conference (HRK) in Germany and the German universities' spokesperson for the HRK.
