Paved With Good Intentions (Short Stories Book 1) Erick Burgess
What is it like to plan the perfect crime? What is it like to be on the trail of a vicious killer? Have you ever asked yourself either of these questions? If so, then why do you love crime fiction? It’s because there has always been something sexy about a dark mysterious stranger appearing from the shadows. There is the satisfaction of figuring out the crime before your hero does. It’s the safety in knowing the crimes stop as soon as you close the book and go to sleep. Join me with these seven stories that just may keep you up all night. Being in the wrong place at the wrong time is bad for relationships, but it makes for excellent crime fiction. In Paved with Good Intentions, follow ordinary people who stumble into extraordinary situations.
