Parenting in the Age of McDonald's Tanuja Sodhi
Parenting in the Age of McDonald’s admits that parents have never been busier, children have never had so much food to choose from—deep-fried chips, giant burgers and imported chocolates—and obesity has never given more cause for concern! This practical and comprehensive handbook helps parents deal with every kind of child across the diet spectrum—the overweight one, the picker eater, the underweight student, the young athlete, the stressed pre-teen, and the opinionated pre-schooler. Drawing from real-life experiences, and chock-full of practical tips. Parenting in the Age of McDonald’s will help parents strengthen the nutritional foundation of their children.
