Trouble. Is what chased the young innocent Merlynn away from her home and the family that loved her. Deep hurt is what had her yearning for love and approval from somebody, anybody who showed interest. So she just knew she'd won a prize when she caught the attention of the handsome eloquent speaking guy in the mall. At first glance Bill did seem to be everything she ever thought she wanted in a man. Never mind the fact that she was too young and green to have anybody to compare his advances up against. Or the fact that he never said I Love you as he pushed himself up on her with promises marriage and devotion that he never planned on keeping.
