The Internet has been called “the great equalizer”. Anyone who has access to a computer and an Internet connection has the entire world at his fingertips. The World Wide Web bridges oceans and continents and brings people together.

This rapid explosion of online presence has also brought about a new phenomenon: social networking. This technology is at both advanced and human. It is advanced because it transmits information at lightning speed; human because it harnesses the human potential to connect, share, and communicate.

Many enterprising individuals have also started websites that require paid membership; these websites contain information that is otherwise inaccessible to others. Discussion forums are another form of network that allows sharing of ideas and concepts among people with similar passions and interests.
