Western Romance
Six years ago, Erin McGarity wanted to leave every bit of her small town life for the dream and excitement of the big city. Now she has a successful career and a precocious five year old, living in an idyllic New York loft. But when her family's farm goes under, she and her son pack up and move across the country to join her ailing father, hoping to convince him to keep the farm, which has been in her family for generations.

Going home also means that she's forced to come face-to-face with the man she left at the altar six years ago. He's a wealthy ranch owner with his eyes set on the McGarity farm. When he and Erin reunite, will their once-young love be rekindled, or will their past keep them from having a future? And what is the ultimate adventure that Erin is always dreaming of? Perhaps it's always been right in front of her...
