Sling Shot Circuit Rider (Volume 1) Randy G. Pogue
Meet William Travers, an ordinary man who accepts the extraordinary call of God to become a Methodist itinerant preacher during the early 1800s. As one of the many circuit-riding preachers of his time that helped shape civility and morality in the American West, William discovers that the life of a circuit rider is not glamorous but remarkably eventful and rewarding. Earthquakes, trials, and danger test the young minister's resolve as he pursues lost souls and works tirelessly in planting churches and modeling Christian compassion. Can young William's unexpected friendship with an Indian boy bring peace to the hostility between the Native American Indians and the western settlers? Will his life of service and sacrifice allow him to find true love? As William's story unfolds you will witness some of God's greatest handiwork and recognize that the same love and grace that gave him courage is available to empower your life journey today.
