"Buy The RV, We Start Tomorrow.": The A.V. Club's Guide To Breaking Bad Josh Modell, Noel Murray, Donna Bowman
"The secret of Breaking Bad’s amazing performances is the space and setting given to each character in which they can become more complex, more fascinating. Rather than the armed standoffs or RV chases, the defining image of Breaking Bad is what shows on the face of a person whose brain is churning desperately to find the right words or actions for some no-win situation. It’s not just a thinking person’s drama; the drama is most engrossing when it’s about thinking." —From the introduction by Donna Bowman

The story of a desperate man making hard, soul-eroding choices, Breaking Bad has turned into one of the most compelling, and unnerving, shows on television. The A.V. Club's television section, TV Club, has been following from the start. "Buy the RV, we start tomorrow." The A.V. Club's Guide To Breaking Bad compiles A.V. Club interviews with Breaking Bad cast members Bryan Cranston and Bob Odenkirk and creator Vince Gilligan, plus three seasons' worth of episode-by-episode reviews written by Donna Bowman and Noel Murray. Want to get so deep inside the world of the show you can practically smell toxic fumes wafting off the beakers? This is the book for you.
