Hunger: BBW Alien Lottery Romance (Chosen by the Karal Book 4) Harmony Raines
Ishk has made it his job to protect his home planet from human females. Instead of offering to help Earth, the Karal should simply take the females they need, to breed the next generation, and imprison them in the breeding house. Forced to take a mate for himself, he is adamant that he is one Karalian who will never fall under the spell of a female from Earth

Evie is desperate, with no home she is forced to live on the streets, finding shelter wherever she can. In a bid to be more than a forgotten soul on the dying Earth, she enters the lottery, never expecting to win. She certainly never expected her lottery "prize" to be the hard faced, emotionless Ishk.

Can a life on Karal, with an alien who hates everything about your species, be better than the life she wants to escape?

Made to take one of the human females, Ishk takes her to his bed and mates with her, knowing it is his duty to produce a son before the Prime passes. However, while Evie is in his bed, he still intends to convince the Hier Council that Earth females should not be allowed to roam the planet. He believes that a smaller number of females should be taken and kept for breeding purposes, and shared amongst the Karal. It would put less strain on the planet's resources and save their sons the heartache of watching two parents die.

Yet when faced with the true facts about his plans, can he change? Or will it be too late and his past deeds will ruin the future he now craves.

Hunger: Chosen by the Karal, contains scorching hot sex scenes and is meant for adults only.
