Could love cause you to question everything you've known about yourself?

Tyler Bennett is the king of Detroit. The superstar pitcher for the Tigers could have any woman he wanted, and usually did. Born and raised in Michigan, he was a hometown hero when he was on the mound. That, combined with his smoldering good looks and tremendous amount of confidence made it all but impossible for the women of the Motor City, not to mention every other city in the league, to say no to him.

The one woman he couldn't have was Bryn Malone, the daughter of Tyler's agent. Bryn has seen enough two timing sports players in her days to fall for a play boy bad boy like him.

Could this unexpected romance flourish into a happily ever after ending?
