Men of Snow

John R Burns

Men of Snow John R Burns
The hatred of men in a war torn Europe provide the basis for this story of pain, loss and revenge. It explores the effects of memory, the obsessive need for vengeance and how one generation of victims produces another. It shows what can happen when the lives of two totally different characters in a violent period of time create such violent consequences that lead to a dramatic and tragic conclusion.
'Men of Snow,' is a tale of survival, incredible friendships and a son whose life is dominated by what happened to his father in the war.
