The Widow's Cliff and Other Poems Gordon L Kuhn
Humanity portrayed through a glass of dark and light, of clear and blur, of pain and laughter, of life as has been lived and as having been lived sought to explain where no explanation is asked for, warranted, left open, closed and without any given knowledge exists only in the silence of the mind where words create their own sound, their own music, mood, and have a taste unique to themselves and then fall like leaves upon an uncaring earth where feelings laid down are turned to dust and then forgotten are.
