UFOs and the Murder of Marilyn Monroe Donald R. Burleson
In this, the most controversial book ever written about Marilyn Monroe, the author shares his extensive research and employs CIA and FBI documents to demonstrate that Marilyn did not commit suicide (as commonly claimed), but rather was murdered by government officials to silence her about highly classified things she knew about UFO crash retrievals. Dr. Burleson provides new evidence to support his argument that Marilyn kept company with the wrong people in government, learned secret things from them that they should not have disclosed to her, and tragically paid for this knowledge with her life at the age of only 36. The author calls what happened to her a national disgrace, and sets the record right about how and why she died.
