Frequently Misspelt Words: Interactive Quiz - 5 & 6-Letter Words: Pongman (Secondary Schools Entrance Examination Revision Guides Book 23) Ann Crick

Parents this is no ordinary spelling book

There are characters and a story...

There are secrets. George is always breaking his leg. Nobody has figured out how. George borrowed money from Sarah and has not paid it back! Of course Sarah is angry. (By the way secrets is a frequently misspelled word)

Timmy? Timmy is a naughty boy who always seems to be doing things he should not be doing. Timmy upsets his loving mother by going skiing alone. (The bolded words are frequently misspelled words)

Sam? You judge for yourself. Is he really on Sarah's side or is it simply a case of the enemy of my enemy being my friend? (More frequently misspelled words)

Each book in the series will reveal a little bit more about the main characters, the drama between George and Sarah and Timmy's escapades.

An exciting new feature

This book frequently uses frequently misspelt 5 & 6-letter words and their derivatives. Every question has at least 2 frequently misspelled words, the word that you are required to spell (the missing word) and another frequently misspelled word.

For example:
The stalks fell when they started to _____ the field

Stalk and field are both frequently misspelt 5-letter words. Stalks is the plural of stalk. This deliberate repetition of frequently misspelt words will accelerate learning of these troublesome words and provide valuable reading practice.

This deliberate repetition also leads to creative sentences and more interesting reading. Instead of a bland sentence like:
What is the _____ of the rod? We have instead the more stimulating:
What is the _____ of the horse's tail?
Horse is a frequently misspelt 5-letter word.

This eBook goes one step further

When the answer is given the other frequently misspelt words in the sentence are bolded and italicized to call attention to them and further aid the learning process.

As always the correct answer is bolded and underlined.

Just do it
