The purpose of this book is to guide you to blogs that you might find useful when thinking about your own library's case-blogs from nearby libraries, blogs from libraries with similar service populations, or blogs that specialize in topics or work in ways that you'll find interesting. Most of this book is examples: 252 blogs from 196 libraries, arranged geographically. It's not a comprehensive survey (and I did exclude non-English blogs for reasons of practicality), but I did attempt complete coverage within a few basic criteria. I was impressed by the diversity and quality of what's out there.
