Summer Hideaway Mandie Mills
Ava, Chris and Javier have been best friends since middle school, but eight years later they can no longer deny the chemistry and attraction that is between them. They are open-minded and sexually adventurous. Ava loves both men, and she knows they love her. She wants a three-way relationship. They escape to Ava's family lake house to explore their new, forbidden passion and indulge every fantasy and desire, in every combination. Javi is focused, skilled, and Ava discovers just how kinky Chris can be.

Sometimes it's just two of them making love, sometimes all three. As they explore their unconventional love, they face feelings of rejection and resentment, but their hearts beat as one. It's the three of them against the world, and they must find a way to make their relationship work both in the bedroom and out in the real world.

Reader Advisory: This story has graphic sexual language and scenes—no closed bedroom doors (or other rooms) here!
